

More Harmful Than Alcohol

Overeating Worst Form of Intemperance.

If your food is undigested, you are underfed, no matter how much you eat. And the underfed man is, to the extent of the underfeeding, crippled for the battle of life. On the other hand, there is such a thing as overeating. The harm done by indigestion caused by overloaded stomachs exceeds that from the increased heart beats caused by the use of alcohol or whiskey.

Eat as much good food as you need but don't overload the stomach. If your stomach is weak it may refuse to digest what you eat. Then you ought to use a good digestant like Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat without the stomach's aid. This rest and the wholesome tonics contained in Kodol Dyspepsia Cure soon restore health. You don't have to diet. Don't eat too much. That's harmful. But eat enough and of sufficient variety. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest it. It quickly relieves the sensation of fullness and bloating from which some people suffer after meals. It prevents belching and absolutely cures indigestion and other stomach troubles. Equally good for children.

Lemuel James, Marysville, O., says: "I suffered from dyspepsia for thirty years but a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure completely cured me and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers from this disease."

POLICE WORN OUT

Chicago Blue Coats Admit That They Have Their Hands Full.

ONE STRENUOUS DAY

Attempts On the Part of Packers to Deliver Meat Provokes the Most Stubborn Resistance.

Broken Heads and Bruised Bodies Fill the Chicago Hospitals to Overflowing.

Chicago, June 5.—Driven by men covered with dust and blood, many of them barely able from exhaustion to hold the reins in their hands, thirty-six meat wagons entered the main gate of the Union Stockyards last night amid a shower of stones, bricks, bottles and sticks. The wagons, guarded by five police wagons filled with bluecoats, and two omnibuses crowded to the fullest capacity with policemen, were on the return from a delivery of supplies to downtown provision houses, after one of the fiercest days in the strike of the beef packers' teamsters. Many of the drivers who are officials at the packing houses, were cut and bruised from head to foot. The police were in even worse condition. The wagon drivers had been working from 5 o'clock in the morning, and their progress from the stockyards into the city's business district and back again had been contested bitterly by mobs of strike sympathizers. At the very entrance of the stockyards last night, after all seeming danger had passed, George June, an employee of the Anglo-American Packing company, was struck by a baseball bat and knocked from his wagon seat. He was picked up in an unconscious condition, and it is believed he may die. Many others were struck at the same time by a shower of stones, but the police were too worn out to offer resistance.

More than a dozen battles were fought during the day between the rioters and the police, and the hospitals are overcrowded with the injured. The fiercest battle of the day took place yesterday afternoon at Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue. The rioters stood on the viaduct and hurled rocks at the meat wagons passing underneath. The throng was the most formidable in numbers and in daring of any of the crowds that gathered during the day. Before this mob could be dispersed the police were compelled to use revolvers. More than 50 shots were fired, the bullets passing over the heads of the crowd, which finally became frightened and scattered, but not until many of the rioters and policemen had suffered serious injuries.

A conference was held last night between representatives of the packers and the teamsters, looking to a settlement of the strike. President Frederick W. Job, chairman of the state board of arbitration, brought about the meeting. A settlement of the strike of the drivers of delivery wagons of the retail State street department stores earlier in the day formed the basis on which the opposing elements hoped to effect a compromise. Last night the soldiers of the First regiment I. N. G., were instructed to be prepared for a hurried call to duty. The guard was notified to be ready at a moment's notice. Governor Yates is in the city.

Two Killed in Wreck.
Chattanooga, Tenn., June 5.—The Cincinnati Southern local passenger train No. 5, due here from Oakdale, Tenn., at 7:30 p. m., but running late, struck an obstruction on the track half a mile south of Cave Springs, 28 miles north of here, at 10:10 o'clock last night, derailing the engine and upsetting one of the passenger coaches. Engineer Frank Finch and Fireman Pay were killed. Four passengers were injured. A special train bearing five physicians was sent from here to the scene of the wreck.

Called to Answer.
Baltimore, June 5.—The grand jury of Dorchester county has returned three indictments against State Senator William F. Applegart, a leading Democratic member of the legislature, a prominent aspirant for congressional nomination, and the wealthiest man in his county. The first two charges him with trying to corruptly influence the grand jury. The third presents him for violating local option law by selling liquor at his store. The indictments have created a sensation in Maryland.

Engine Blew Up.
Piedmont, W. Va., June 5.—Baltimore & Ohio engine No. 1797 blew up near Piedmont yesterday, instantly killing Fireman Robert Graham of Cumberland and E. Smith of Rowlesburg, W. Va. Engineer W. G. Lynn of Cumberland, Md., was badly hurt but may recover. Front brakeman Charles Powell of Grafton was fatally hurt. The engine is a total wreck and both tracks were blocked.

Fraud Victims Reimbursed.
Paris, June 5.—Maitre Lanquist, legal adviser of the Humbert family which is concerned in the Humbert-Crawford lawsuit, has placed $700,000 francs at the disposal of the French authorities for the benefit of the victims of the alleged Humbert-Crawford fraud.

CONGRESSIONAL

Isthmian Canal Project Occupies Attention of Senate.

Washington, June 5.—Discussion of the project of constructing an isthmian canal was begun by the senate yesterday. Mr. Morgan (Ala.), chairman of the committee on inter-oceanic canals, opened the debate, speaking nearly three hours. A considerable portion of his speech was devoted to an examination of the recently suggested danger to the Nicaragua canal route of seismic disturbances. This danger, he concluded, after a careful review of many authorities, existed only in the imagination of those who desired to defeat any canal project. His study of the situation had convinced him that really there was greater danger from volcanic and earthquake disturbances to the Panama than to the Nicaragua route; but he was satisfied that little danger to either was to be anticipated.

Mr. Morgan reviewed at length the political conditions in Colombia, finding in them a grave menace to the United States in the construction of a canal by the Panama route. He presented also the present phases of the diplomatic negotiations looking to the building of a canal by both the Nicaragua route and by the Panama route. He closed with a strong appeal for the passage of the Nicaragua bill.

The debate on the anti-anarchy bill continued all day in the house. It was without sensational features, being confined almost entirely to the legal and constitutional phases of the question.

CREATED SENSATION

Women Hiss the Bridegroom At a Church Wedding.

Worcester, Mass., June 5.—One of the most sensational scenes ever witnessed at a church in this city was enacted at St. John's Roman Catholic church yesterday, when Mary E. Donaher, a teacher in the public schools of Worcester, was married to Dr. Morris W. Quinn, a dentist of Brockton. As the wedding party entered the church it was met by hisses from a thousand women who had apparently gathered for that particular purpose. A detail of police were present to protect the bride and groom, but they were entirely powerless to maintain order. The women rushed by and around them close to the wedding party, and gave vent to their feelings in no uncertain manner. The demonstration grew out of the attempted shooting of Dr. Quinn several days ago by Miss Bertha Condon of this city, who asserted that Quinn had betrayed her under promise of marriage.

Both Wanted to Die.
Austin, Tex., June 5.—The dead bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wachler were found in their residence here late yesterday afternoon with their heads nearly severed from their bodies. A note which was found on the dresser said that both wanted to die. A butcher knife on the bed revealed the method of death. The woman's head was hanging by a mere thread and the man's throat was cut from ear to ear. The couple had been married but a few months.

Got Back Safely.
Fort DeFrance, June 5.—Prof Angelo Hellprin, president of the Philadelphia Geographical society, who is here for the National Geographical society, came to Fort DeFrance last night from his explorations of the crater on the summit of Monte Pelee. Prof Hellprin is well and in good spirits. He has rested from the fatigues of his last trip, and is ready for more work.

Probable Acquittal.
Washington, June 5.—The report and findings of the courtmartial which tried General Jacob H. Smith for cruelty in the Philippines has been received by the president, and he is now going over the papers. A press dispatch from Manila some time ago stated that it was the impression there that the verdict was acquittal.

On to Still H.
Paducah, Ky., June 5.—A party of fifty-nine prominent men and women from Ohio and Indiana arrived here last night en route to the Shiloh national park to attend the dedication of the Ohio and Indiana monuments on the battlefield June 7.

Engineers Adjourn.
Norfolk, Va., June 5.—After having been in session over three weeks the national convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers adjourned yesterday to meet the second Tuesday in May, 1904, in Los Angeles, Cal.

MINES FLOODING

Inability to Keep Pumps Going Works Disaster In Some Cases.

FEAR CALLS MEN OUT

It Is Said That Fear of Bodily Harm Causes More Men to Leave Than Arguments.

For All This It Is Comparatively Quiet In the Disturbed Coal Region.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 5.—More engineers, firemen and pump-runners obeyed the call of the miners' union and struck yesterday, but in most instances the coal company officials were able to fill the places of the strikers. The Susquehanna Coal company's colliery No. 5 at Nanticoke was the worst sufferer, all the firemen refusing to go to work, which compelled the company to shut down the engines. This colliery furnishes the power for the water supply of Nanticoke, and unless the engines are again started the borough will have a water famine to contend with. There was a slight fire in the town yesterday, and as the fire alarm is sounded by means of the colliery whistle, there was considerable trouble and delay before the volunteer firemen could be called to the scene of the fire. The company, it is said, will allow its mines to fill with water and let the borough get its water supply as best it can.

It is comparatively quiet in the Wyoming valley. There is the usual gathering of crowds at several collieries at starting and stopping time, but nothing of a serious nature has occurred. Some men were stoned on their way to and from work, and several were thrown into pools of water. The fear of bodily harm is causing more men to quit work than are the arguments of the strikers.

President Mitchell is kept busy all day in his headquarters. He has nothing to say regarding his visit to Scranton, where he met Frank P. Sargent, chief of the locomotive firemen. Regarding the general strike situation, he said everything was progressing satisfactorily; that more men were coming out each day and that the idle men are behaving themselves well. In emphasizing the latter statement Mr. Mitchell said the chief of the Wilkesbarre police told him that during the 21 days the strike has been on there have been fewer arrests than during the same number of days prior to the suspension of work. Among the arrests that were made not one was a miner. The national president had no comment to make when informed that the New York board of trade had decided to ask President Roosevelt to take up the task of trying to end the great struggle.

Making Them Move On.
Hazelton, Pa., June 5.—One thousand men have started from McAdoo on the first stage of a march to Philadelphia with two non-union men who arrived in the former town last night and were captured by the strikers. At Silverbrook, two miles south of here, the men will be turned over to another large body of miners, who will proceed with them to Tamaqua, where they will be taken in charge by a delegation of Panther Creek valley miners, who will march them further toward their destination.

PRESIDENT MAY ACT

Executive Interference Is Asked In the Miners' Strike.
Washington, June 5.—President Roosevelt spent some time yesterday afternoon considering the proposition of the New York board of trade and transportation that he appoint a commissioner to investigate the strike situation in the anthracite regions with the view to effecting an arbitration of the differences between the miners and operators. It is stated that the president has not yet decided what action he will take in response to the suggestion.

Senators Hanna of the Civic Federation.
When interviewed, professed to know nothing of the New York board's action, but it is intimated in official circles that if a commissioner is appointed the president will look to the senator to undertake the task.

Drink and Jealousy.
Columbus, O., June 5.—Richard J. Sands, an old soldier, aged 60 years, killed his mistress, Mrs. Anna McIntock, at a boarding house last night by cutting her throat, and attempted to kill the proprietress, Mrs. Victoria Richardson, who witnessed the murder. Drinking and jealousy was the cause.

KITCHENER'S REWARD

A Quarter of a Million Given to Support New Title.

London, June 5.—It was announced yesterday afternoon that Lord Kitchener had been created a viscount by King Edward. Lord Kitchener has also been promoted to be a general.

Although it is recognized that the rapid advancement made by Lord Kitchener has not been paralleled since the time of Nelson and Wellington, and that in the course of his life he is likely to attain the greatest possible distinction the sovereign can confer, almost all the morning newspapers in London comment upon the grant of £50,000 as unnecessarily niggardly.

The report that Lord Kitchener will come home for the coronation of King Edward is incorrect. He still has much to do in South Africa, and it is not likely that he will leave there before the middle of July. The South African commands will then be divided, General Lyttleton taking charge of the Transvaal and the Orange River colony and General Buller Hamilton relieving General French in the command of the forces in Cape Colony.

Kruger's Condition.
Utrecht, June 5.—Mr. Kruger is seriously indisposed and confined to his bed.

Topeka, Kan., June 5.—Heavier rains have fallen in Kansas during the past twenty-four hours than for three years. In Emporia $60,000 damage was done to goods in basements of stores. Abilene reports a fall of four inches and Reading five inches. All the rivers are out of their banks. It is raining again today in the central part of the state.

Hints At Foul Murder.
St. Joseph, Mo., June 5.—Mrs. Bell Smith and her two small children were burned to death in their home at Hardin, Mo., yesterday. No one knows how the fire originated. It is suspected by neighbors that triple murder preceded the fire, but this theory has not been substantiated by investigation.

Death Over a Dice Game.
Columbus, O., June 5.—Xavier Neld ermer, a Bavarian brewery laborer, 30 years old, yesterday confessed to stabbing A. W. Hartness Tuesday night, the resulting wounds causing Hartness' death at the St. Francis hospital yesterday. The men had quarreled over a dice game.

BRYAN IS CHEERED

Mention of the Nebraskan's Name Arouses Democratic Enthusiasm.

IS FORMALLY IGNORED

Though Carefully Omitted In the Resolutions His Name Secures the Applause of the Day.

Indiana Democrats Put Up a State Ticket and Adopt Formal Resolutions.

Indianapolis, June 5.—The Democrats of Indiana nominated their state ticket yesterday under unusual conditions, as only three ballots were taken in making all the nominations. One ballot was for secretary of state, one for superintendent of public instruction, and another for the three appellate judges for the northern district. The third ballot was made necessary by four men being placed in nomination for three places.

It was the first time in many years that a state convention disposed of nominations so rapidly and with so few ballots.

The leaders, however, expressed satisfaction with the convention and its work. The ticket follows:

Secretary of State—Albert Schoonover of Attica.

Attorney General—W. E. Stilwell of Princeton.

Auditor—James R. Riggs of Sullivan.

Treasurer—Jerome Herff of Peru.

Clerk of Supreme Court—Adam Heimberger of New Albany.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It is used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

THE democratic state convention was remarkably cool and quiet and of small proportions.

THE MEN who have been whooping it up for Bryan since 1896 were given scant recognition this time.

BRYAN, the peerless, will now have material for an editorial on Indiana democracy and he will probably use it.

Earl Cox has returned from Saginaw, Michigan, where he went a few weeks ago. He has taken employment with the Ideal Entertainer as a lighting sketch artist, having already demonstrated satisfactorily what he can do. He will return and begin the next season after a few weeks at home.

THE democrats began their convention at 10:30 and got through at 2:45 and did not mean to hurry even then. Most of the nominations were by acclamation. It was a spiritless performance from first to last and the quicker it was over the better it suited the sad faced managers.

A FEW of the Fourth district democrats went to Nashville today to nominate a candidate for congress. Dr. J. M. Shields is the only Jackson county democrat missed from his accustomed place today so it is presumed that he is at Nashville with thirty-six proxies and will cast the solid vote of the county for Marion Griffith, the Vevay statesman. How enthusiastic are the friends of Griffith in this county!

THE democratic platform is characteristic. The party has been a party of opposition since the republican party came into power. For forty years democratic conventions have resolved against the republican party, and their latest platform is the same old protest. This was as everybody expected. A democratic platform that omitted the "we denounce," "we condemn," "we oppose" paragraphs would be mighty brief and would scarcely be recognized by the democratic brethren.

THE ISLAND OF CEYLON

Its People and Its Products as Observed by Will Abel.

MANILA, P. I., April 21, 1902.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE REPUBLICAN:

The McClellan arrived at Colombo last April 3rd, and remained in the harbor until April 6th following. All the passengers tried to use this time to the best advantage in seeing the sights of the city and of the island of Ceylon. The island and city were of particular interest to us, for here we first beheld a luxuriant tropical vegetation. The scenery was a relief from the monotony of viewing the dreary deserts of Arabia and Africa and the ocean when out of sight of land.

The island of Ceylon has an area of 25,364 square miles and a population of three and one-half million. It has been in the center of the Buddhist civilization for over two thousand years, and from time to time immortal has been known as the land of Ophir. Unlike the undeveloped resources of our own country, everything has the appearance of being complete in its way. Aided by European capital and energy the agricultural resources of the island have been well developed. The island has been an English possession since 1802.

The chief city and the capital is Colombo. It has a population of 128,000. The people are mostly Indians. Their color is black, their hair shiny, coarse, straight and black. At first I judged that they were Malays; but I then recalled that they came from the ancient Aryan race and were therefore Caucasians. They are intelligent and their merchants are very shrewd. Many of them can speak broken English and can tell an American at a glance. I suppose they can recognize other nationalities just as readily. There are a great number of beggars; also many guides who try to force their services upon travelers.

The means of conveyance in Colombo are much superior to those of most Eastern cities. An electric car line runs through the city along the main street. A railway runs from here into the interior of the island. Here I saw for the first time a jinrickshaw, which is a cart drawn by an Indian and carrying two persons. Conveyance by jinrickshaws, especially for short distance, is very convenient and also very popular. On every side there are also carriages drawn by horses and ready to convey one to different places at a very moderate charge.

Most of the passengers of the McClellan made a trip to Candy, the summer capital of the island. It is situated in the interior of the island, 74 miles from Colombo. The fare for the round trip, first class, was $1.92; second class, $1.28. There were Easter holiday rates. The rise in elevation from the sea coast at Colombo to a height of 1700 feet at Candy is gradual. The trip gave us an opportunity to see the varied products of a tropical country at different elevations.

The rice crop had been harvested and the rice land was being prepared for another crop. Fields covered with water, which was prevented from running off by means of embankments encircling them, were being plowed with wooden plows drawn by water oxen. The soil was being prepared for the seed. Up the mountain valleys where irrigation was possible terraced fields were being sown with rice. On the coast land there were beautiful groves of the cocoanut palm, tablet palm, bread fruit tree, mango tree and banana tree. It seems that very little water is drunk, the milk of the cocoanut being used instead. At the higher elevations where irrigation is impossible the large tea plantations are found. The bush is prevented by trimming from ever becoming more than three or four feet high. The plant has dark green leaves which are plucked, then dried and rolled by machinery and made ready for use. The raising of tea is the most important industry of the island. The coffee plant was observed occasionally, but the raising of coffee is not now an important industry in the island. Tobacco and cacao are also raised very largely.

The governmental botanical gardens are the finest collection of tropical plants in the world. We arrived at Singapore April 12th and left for Manila April 15th next. Singapore is only one degree and seventeen minutes north of the equator, yet the weather was pleasant and we experienced no inconvenience in walking or riding about the city. Singapore is not as clear or well kept as a city as Colombo. Moreover it was our last stop before reaching Manila and most of us were glad when we continued our voyage again.

How to Avoid Trouble.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over, and if procured now may save you a trip to town in the night or in your busiest season. It is everywhere admitted to be the most successful medicine in use for bowel complaints, both for children and adults. No family can afford to be without it. For sale by C. W. Milbous.

HAND IN HAND.

Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Indigestion the Bane of the Present Day Seymour People know the Remedy.

There is a condition that a great many people get into these days, not sick abed, able to be around but never feeling well, weak and the least exertion tucks them out, as months go on they become weaker until resistance to disease is practically overcome. It was directly for this class that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were formulated, they provide the lacking element that is wanted to remove the trouble Nerve Force.

Mr. J. Blair of 114 north Lynn St., Seymour, Ind., says: For some time I have been a victim of severe nervousness, sleeplessness and indigestion. I heard Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills well spoken of and thought I would try them. I got a box of the pills at A. J. Pellens drug store and after using one box of the medicine I can say that I think with further use I would get permanent results. I think these pills a grand tonic.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 c. a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Bala, N. Y. See that portrait and signature A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.

An Argument For Social Frankness.

It is best to be sincere, as a family in Germantown recently found out. They had been entertaining a distinguished novelist from abroad who was not altogether acquainted with society's way of saying things it does not mean. The time came for her departure, and as the host was handing her to the carriage he said very courteously, "I am sorry you cannot stay longer."

To which came the unlooked for retort, "Oh, but I can!" There was only one course open. The trunks were taken down, the carriage sent away, and to the consternation of her hosts, the lady re-entered the house.—Philadelphia Times.

Smallpox Clean-Up.

Indianapolis, June 5.—The state board of health has had a letter from Dr. Ferguson, who is working in the southern part of the state in conjunction with Dr. Hurty. He reports that he is meeting with good success and that the local authorities are everywhere willing and anxious to take whatever steps may be necessary to satisfy the state authorities. Nothing has been heard officially from Dr. Hurty, in whose district the most unsatisfactory counties were.

Pesthouse Burned.

Peru, Ind., June 5.—Isaac White, colored, afflicted with smallpox, and Creed Eaton, a colored nurse, who occupy the county pesthouse three miles west of Peru, narrowly escaped cremation a few nights ago. Someone set fire to the pesthouse while the occupants were asleep, and burning boards falling upon them awakened the two colored men, and they escaped by dashing through the flames.

Killed by Lightning.

Washington, June 5.—During an electrical storm William H. Springman, a coal miner, at Cannelburg, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. He was returning from work and had just reached the front gate, when his little daughter ran to the door to open it for him. A blinding flash of lightning came and the bolt struck him on the head. The body was badly burned.

Big Blaze In Chicago.

Chicago, June 5.—The Illinois Car and Equipment company's plant at Hegewisch, a southern suburb of Chicago, burned last night. The company was engaged in the building of railway freight cars, and employed 1,100 men, practically the entire population of the town. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

DAIRY NOTES.

Good butter should be sold from the time it is put upon the table. Any excitement in the dairy cow tends to lessen the flow of milk.

Failing to get all the buttermilk out causes butter to become rancid soon.

To obtain the best results in churning the cream should be only slightly sour.

In winter the cream should be warmed up to about 66 degrees before putting in the churn.

One advantage in brine salting is that it almost entirely avoids streaked or mottled butter.

The milk should always be skimmed while sweet and the cream then allowed to turn slightly sour.

Sometimes butter has white specks distributed through it. This is caused by oversourness in the cream.

In butter making next to controlling the temperature is to churn often while the cream is in good condition.

With temperature under control and churning done at the right time the butter will become solid and be easily handled.

On the farm to make the most out of the milk and butter some of the cows should be bred to come fresh in the spring and some in the fall.—St. Louis Republic.

A Simple Remedy.

The readiness of some people to send for a man to do those little things about the house which the smallest amount of enterprise or ingenuity would enable them to do for themselves is illustrated by an incident reported in the Chicago Tribune of a family named Chuckerster.

They had bought some new gas burners with mantles. For a week or two the light was satisfactory; then it grew dim and dimmer until Mrs. Chuckerster sent for the gas fitter.

"It grows worse all the time," she explained. "When was it put in?" asked the man.

"About a month ago."

"Ah, yes; I see." Then he lifted the chimney off, took it out to the kitchen, washed it with soap and water, and the light burned as brightly as ever.

"Fifty cents," said the man.

The Climate.

"Don't you think you have a very changeable climate?" said the stranger. "No," said the native. "It changes fast enough when it's pleasant, but when it's disagreeable it hangs on like grim death."—Washington Star.

MARRIED.

WILHELM-CORDES.

One of the prettiest of June weddings was the one solemnized last night at the First Presbyterian church, when Miss Minnie Cordes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Cordes became the wife of Mr. John Wilhelm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilhelm, of Indianapolis, formerly of this city.

About three hundred friends were invited to witness the ceremony, which was pronounced at 8 o'clock by the Rev. J. T. Charlton. The bridesmaids leading the way up the south aisle and the groomsmen the north aisle formed a semi-circle at the altar which was a beautiful bower of palms and ferns, out of which radiated rainbow gleams from Roman candles. Following them came the maid of honor, Miss Wilhelm, sister of the groom and Mr. Albert Cordes, brother of the bride, as best man, who preceded the bride and groom. Miss Sadie Mills played Lohengrin's wedding march for the entrance which was changed to Mendelssohn's Nocturne during the ceremony.

The bride was crowned in an exquisite creation of duchesse satin and lace and carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley and ferns. The skirt was embellished with chiffon ruffles with applique patterns on skirt and bodice.

Miss Wilhelm's gown mousseline over taffeta, simply but elegantly fashioned. Her bouquet was of Bridesmaid roses. The rainbow effect was produced by the gowns of the bridesmaids. Miss Bertie Wolfe wore white organdie over pink. Miss Macie Johnson was beautifully attired in green Mousseline de Soie. Miss Lida Pleninken looked very charming in a dainty pink muslin. Miss Dorothy Sandau wore lemon silk muslin. Miss Myrtle Bennett was gowned in lavender silk organdie. Miss Lelia Vest looked very charming in silver gray Mousseline de Soie over lemon taffeta. Miss Barbara Laugel's dress was of cream muslin elaborated with cream satin trimming. Miss Katherine Cordes came last in blue silk muslin beautifully ruffled. They wore elbow sleeves and bodice decollete.

The groomsmen, Messrs T. Smith, N. Kauffman, J. H. Shea, E. Champion, J. H. Andrews Jr., C. E. T. Dobbins, S. V. Jackson and Bert Sandau wore the conventional black dress suits.

After the ceremony a reception followed at the home of the bride for the bride and groom, where elegant refreshments were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm left last night for a short wedding journey. They will be at home to their friends at their home on west Second street after June 15.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wilhelm and daughter, Miss Wilhelm, and Miss Macie Johnson, of Indianapolis, Mrs. F. H. W. Lensing, of Louisville, Miss Alma Seider, and Phil Laugel, Jeffersonville, Miss Alma Pillion, of Bedford, Walter Kipp and Ed Champion, of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Abel, of Anderson, Albert Leudke, of Ft. Riter, Miss Dorothy Sandau, of Terre Haute, Albert Cordes, of North Vernon and Tilden Smith, of Vallonia.

Mr. Phillips is employed at the Hopewell Livery Barn. They will go to house-keeping at once on Bruce street, where he has their home nicely furnished.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound of imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that can not be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Redding Township's Taxables

The returns of Jesse Thompson, assessor of Redding township, shows that in the township there are 21446 acres of land valued in cash at $457,615. Cash value improvements, $69,615. Cash value of land and improvements $526,230. Cash value of 284 lots in township $8,300; cash value of improvements on same $10,500; cash value of lots and improvements $18,800. Cash value of personal property $126,600. Total number of taxable polls 223. Number of male dogs in the township 182, female dogs 11. Total number of dogs 193. After giving the number of dogs it may be of interest to know that the total number of sheep reported to the assessor was 93.

In the Dull Season.

An increasing number of establishments have adopted the rule of making special efforts to stimulate trade in the duller seasons of the year. One advertiser said he could count on at the business he could do at the holiday time, but what he wanted was to induce people to buy at other times. He found it profitable to pay unusual attention to his newspaper advertising in the summer months.

Mothers lose their dread for "that terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for bowel complaints of every sort.

Knowing How

Ever hear of the plumber who charged $25.00 for doing a job that required only a few minutes? He said the 50 cents was for doing the work and the $25.00 was for "knowing how."

The makers of Queen Quality Shoes do not charge for "knowing how." They "know how" to make a better shoe than ever known. They "know how" to put grace and beauty into Queen Quality shoes to such a degree that they have come to be recognized as originators of shoe fashions.

THE ELIXIR OF LIFE.

The Secret of it Revealed.

The old philosophers had a dream that there existed or could be compounded a rejuvenating elixir, by the use of which men could live on and on in youthful vigor and enjoyment. Some thought that there was a fountain of youth to be discovered, and so went far afield to seek it. They failed to find the fountain, but they found new lands. Others shut themselves in secret chambers and with crucible, alembic and retort sought to distill this elixir. They too failed, but they created chemistry. Only a few years ago Dr. Brown-Sequard was announced as having at last discovered this precious elixir. But his discovery also failed under test. And yet the elixir of life exists. It is such a common-place thing that we overlook it.

The real elixir of life is the food we eat. All physical life is sustained by food, and food alone. You can't live without eating. But you can't live without living. Because it is not what is eaten which sustains life, but only so much of it as is digested and assimilated. That is why physical weakness and wasting of the body point inevitably to disease of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition.

NO MAN CAN BE STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

In a condition of perfect health the measure of a man's strength would be the quantity of nutrition contained in the food eaten. When there is disease of the stomach and its allied organs, the measure of strength is the quantity of nutrition extracted from the food eaten. Disease of the stomach means loss of nutrition, and loss of nutrition means weakness. That is why weak stomach means weak man. Stomach "trouble" which is spoken of so lightly is often the root of heart "trouble," lung "trouble," kidney "trouble," etc. These are all organs of the body, and when the body as a whole is deprived of nutrition because of "weak" stomach, the organs which make up the body are, of course, the real sufferers.

If this theory is not sound how can we account for the cures of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is essentially a medicine for the cure of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition? Such cures are a matter of constant surprise to those who sought only relief from stomach "trouble" and found health for the whole body in the use of the "Golden Medical Discovery."

"I had been afflicted for four years with what the doctors called indigestion and liver complaint," writes Mr. J. M. Clark, of Heard, Tenn. "I had tried medicine until I had given up all hope of getting well. I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he advised me to use his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I commenced its use at once, and after using two bottles of the 'Discovery' and some of Dr. Pierce's Pellets I was able to do a reasonable day's work. When I commenced taking it I weighed 125 pounds, and when I quit I weighed 175. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the best medicine for such diseases and to build up the constitution that I ever knew of, and I take pleasure in recommending it.

"You may publish this if you wish, and if any one doubts it being true if they will refer to me I will write to them myself, and if they will try it they will be convinced."

WEIGHT IS TRUE WITNESS.

There is a witness to the soundness of the cures effected by "Golden Medical Discovery," whose testimony is unimpeachable. It is the witness of weight. There's no sentiment in the scales. No imagination in the pound weights. They deal absolutely with the solid facts of solid flesh. When a man is sick with indigestion and liver complaint he generally loses flesh. When he takes "Golden Medical Discovery" and cures the indigestion and liver complaint his lost flesh is regained. That was the case with Mr. C. Clark. He gained twenty-two pounds as the result of his cure; twenty-two pounds of solid flesh, not flabby fat.

"For six long years I suffered with indigestion and my liver and kidneys, which baffled the best doctors in our country," writes Mr. E. L. Russell, of Woolsey, Prince William Co., Va. "I suffered with my stomach and back for a long time, and after taking a 'cart-load' of medicine from three doctors I grew so bad I could hardly do a day's work. I would have death-like pains in the side and back, and thought life was hardly worth living. I decided to consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, and his staff of physicians. They said my case was curable and I was greatly encouraged. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets, as advised. Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved. I got six more bottles and used them, and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce and his medicines. These words are truths, as I live, so if this testimonial can be used in any way to be of benefit you need not hesitate to use it. I shall stand for the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute as long as life lasts."

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It purifies the blood, and builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle. It is the best of tonics for those in a debilitated and nervous condition, speedily restoring them to vigorous health.

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, is not to be confused with the spurious offers of "free medical advice" made by men or women without medical knowledge or training, and who are therefore incapable of giving genuine medical advice.

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

SPRINGS IN THE SEA

FRESH WATER STREAMS THAT BURST FROM THE OCEAN'S BED.

The Origin of the Underground Rivers That Have an Outlet Under the Persian Gulf Has Never Been Satisfactorily Explained.

Along the shallow bottom of the ocean, not very far from the land, a number of openings have been discovered through which water as pure and fresh as that of any bubbling spring mingles with the salt water of the sea. Another remarkable class of fresh water springs is those that sink out of sight or perhaps never come to the surface, but follow hidden channels under the land and under the sea until they finally come to the open air on an island. Both of these types of underground rivers are perhaps most remarkably illustrated near and on Bahrain Island, in the Persian gulf, a place that is also noted as one of the chief sources of pearls.

Bahrain Island, the largest of the group of islands bearing that name, is about twenty miles off the coast of Arabia in the Persian gulf. As the island has almost no rainfall it is a dead level of sandy desert relieved only by palm groves and patches of vegetation where water springs to the surface from the mysterious underground channels. In many places the water does not reach the surface, but is found by sinking wells, the water being raised to the surface by donkeys and bullocks and poured into the channels from which the date palms and other crops are irrigated. These springs cannot possibly be derived from the island, and it is no more likely that they come from the sandy wastes of neighboring Arabia. The Arabian shore as far as can be seen is low and devoid of water except at El-Katif where similar springs are found.

Arabs say that these streams come straight from the Euphrates river through an underground channel by which the great river, in part, flows beneath the Persian gulf. Geologists, however, have dismissed this theory. Though the origin of the springs has not yet been satisfactorily explained, the most favored theory is that they come from the well watered slopes of the Persian mountains far to the north. If this theory is correct, it means that the rainfall sinks into the earth's crust until it reaches impermeable rock strata along which it is carried for a great distance to the south out under the sea until the rock, sloping upward, again brings the water near the surface on Bahrain Island. Some of the wells that are thus supplied are enormous, and one of them, the Adari, serves for the irrigation of many miles of date palms through a canal of an ancient construction. The Adari well is one of the great sights of Bahrain, being a deep basin of water 22 by 40 yards in size. The fact that it comes from a far higher source is shown by the force with which it enters the well. Divers, driven back by the strong current, are unable to reach the bottom.

There being no wells within miles of some of the coast towns of Bahrain, they obtain water from springs that issue from the bottom of the gulf not far from the shore. These springs of course have the same origin as the wells. Divers, with goatskins under their arms, dive through the salt water and fill the skins with the cold, fresh liquid at the bottom. The water obtained in this way usually contains a slight admixture of salt water, so that the mixture is just a little brackish. At some of these openings at the sea bottom the head of water entering the sea is so strong that when hollow bamboos are pushed down into it the water rises through the tubes, delivering the fresh water directly into vessels that are held by men and women who are sitting in the boats that brought them from the land. The force of some of the streams as they come from the earth is so considerable that it pushes back the salt water, and the spring is not mixed with the sea water for quite a space around the place of entrance.

It has been practically determined within the past few years that the waters of a small river in West Africa which disappeared in a fresh water swamp that has no visible outlet find their way by an underground channel into the Atlantic and mingle with the sea that has been discovered a few miles from Cape Verde. A channel has been found on the sea floor which, apparently, was cut by some fresh water stream. During some soundings that were made in 1895 for the purpose of finding and raising a broken cable the vessel engaged in the work was surrounded by swamp vegetation that was continually rising to the surface. It was evidently brought through the underground channel from the swamp.

The breaking of a cable off the mouth of the Rovuma river in East Africa has been attributed to the destructive action of a strong current of sweet water entering the sea level several miles from the land. Another remarkable example of a submarine river is found to the north of the city of Africa on the Pacific coast of South America. A river from the Andes that is gradually swallowed up in the sand has been found to make its way invisibly into the sea, with which it unites some miles from the land.—New York Sun.

A CHURCH LIGHTHOUSE.

Charleston, S. C., Has the Only One in the World.

The only church in the world so far as is known that is also a lighthouse is St. Philip's church, Charleston, S. C. St. Philip's, which is one of the oldest churches in America, is known as the "Westminster abbey of South Carolina," because within and about its walls so many distinguished men lie buried, including John C. Calhoun. The history of the old church is closely interwoven with that of South Carolina, and many of the most celebrated events in the history of the province are connected with it.

It is one of the sights of Charleston, and strangers are always taken to see it and shown its graves and monuments.

The most remarkable feature of the old church, however, is the fact that its lofty steeple serves the purpose of a lighthouse and is used to guide the seafarer and mariner safely into the port of Charleston. The use of the steeple as a lighthouse dates back to 1804, when the United States lighthouse department succeeded by dint of repeated efforts in inducing the vestry of the old church to allow a lantern to be placed in the upper story of the steeple to be used as a range light for vessels entering the harbor through the jetties at its mouth.

The light used is very powerful and is placed at an altitude of about 125 feet above the ground, so that it is easily visible thirty miles at sea. Ships making for Charleston harbor at night always keep a sharp lookout for St. Philip's light and as soon as they sight it get it into line with the beacon on Fort Sumter and then make a straightaway run for the mouth of the jetties and up through them into the harbor of Charleston.

St. Philip's church steeple is considered one of the handsomest architectural in the world and always attracts the eye of strangers entering Charleston from the sea by its commanding height and artistic proportions.—St. Louis Republic.

NATURAL HISTORY.

There are forty-eight different kinds of house fly known and classified. The pig is the only domestic animal in which no case of cancer has been noted.

The Spanish mackerel is one of the fastest of food fishes and cuts the water like a yacht.

Fish swallow their food whole because they are obliged to keep continually opening and closing the mouth for the purpose of respiration.

Siamese cats, both in appearance and character, closely resemble pug dogs. Even their tails have the curious curl so familiar in these stolid dogs.

Animals are found to be subject to hypnotic influence. Lobsters, it is said, can be hypnotized by standing them on their heads five or ten minutes.

There is no wild breed of fowl to which the Brahma or Cochon can be traced. The gamecock seems to be descended from the Cingalese jungle fowl.

The flesh fly produces about 20,000 young in a season. The larva are hatched almost instantly from the egg and at once begin their work of destruction.

A Contrast.

"Papa, who is that gentleman over there on the porch?"

"Don't you remember him, my child? He is the gentleman we met in the restaurant today who chatted so pleasantly with us while he waited about twenty-five minutes for his lunch."

"He doesn't seem very pleasant now, papa."

"Oh, no. He's at home now. See him tearing the newspaper into shreds and trying to throw his hat through the door. He is very angry because it has taken his wife a little over four minutes to get his supper ready."—Indianapolis Sun.

A Hindoo Superstition.

When visits are exchanged by the friends of the Hindoo bride and groom to complete arrangements for the wedding, great attention is paid to omens, which are considered especially potent then. For instance, if the groom's messengers should meet a cat, a fox or a serpent they turn back and seek a more propitious time for the errand. After the bride's father has received the offer he must delay replying until one of the ubiquitous lizards in his house has chirped.—Woman's Home Companion.

Ingalls on Butter.

Many years ago, when John J. Ingalls, the brilliant Kansan, was a member of the senate, oleomargarine was a bone of contention. The debate led Ingalls to utter one of those epigrammatic sentences which made him famous. "I have never, to my knowledge, tasted oleomargarine," said Ingalls, "but I have stood in the presence of genuine butter with awe for its strength and reverence for its antiquity."

CHANGE OF LIFE.

Some Sensible Advice to Women by Mrs. E. Sailer.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—When I passed through what is known as 'change of life,' I had two years' suffering,—sudden heat, and as quick chills would pass over me; my appetite was variable and I never could tell for a day at a time how I would feel the next day. Five bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound changed all that, my days became days of health, and I have enjoyed every day since—now six years.

"We have used considerable of your Vegetable Compound in our charitable work, as we find that to restore a poor mother to health so she can support herself and those dependent upon her, if such there be, is truer charity than to give other aid. Mrs. David Fox of 618 Ewing street, says, I had a lameness across my hips, my kidneys were weak and irregular and gave much annoyance. My son brought me a box of Doan's Kidney Pills from C. W. Milhouse's drug store and I commenced taking them.

Although I did not take the treatment as regularly as I ought yet it cured my back, removed the difficulty with the kidneys and relieved me of embarrassment. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to my acquaintances when I hear them complain of their back or kidneys.

He says: "After using the Pain-Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." PLAN NOW FOR COLORADO.

THE BURLINGTON'S EXTENSIVE

SCHEME OF SUMMER TOURS.

The Burlington Route makes the most attractive excursion route to Colorado Resorts that have ever been made. For long periods of the summer we make such remarkably low first class round trip rates to Denver, Colorado Springs and Manitou, as $21.00 from St. Louis, $15.00 from Kansas City, $25.00 from Chicago. good all summer; at other periods, only one fare plus $2.00 round trip.

CHEAP TO PACIFIC COAST, TOO

May 17th to June 8th, August 2d to 8th. Round trip good 60 days, variable routes: from St. Louis $47.50, from Chicago $50.00, Missouri River $45.00; all lower than the one-way rate; only $11.00 more between Frisco and Portland; first class, good in chair cars (seats free), standard sleepers or Through Tourist Sleeper Excursions. Chief Coast route, the Burlington to Denver, through scenic Colorado, Salt Lake.

COOL MINNESOTA.

10,000 lakes; scores of the coolest and best summer localities in the country; frequent periods of low summer rates.

Apply to nearest ticket agent, or write us of your proposed trip, whether to Colorado, Pacific Coast, Yellowstone Park, Minnesota, and let us advise you least cost and assist you.
